

MARY

Livin' it up, you are going to stay for today

Browsing the books you aren't going to read anyway

I'm gonna lie down, I'm gonna lie down, right here

I'm gonna lie down, I'm gonna lie down, right next to you my dear

Cause Mary, oh Mary, you're the one I want

Cause Mary, you are my home

Cause Mary, oh Mary, you're the one I want

Oh Mary, you are my home

Inviting friends that are going to stay for today

I'm packing their stuff cause they are still here, and it's Thursday

I'm gonna lie down, I'm gonna lie down, right here

I'm gonna lie down, I'm gonna lie down, right next to you my dear

Cause Mary, oh Mary, you're the one I want

Cause Mary, you are my home

Cause Mary, oh Mary, you're the one I want

Cause Mary, you are my home

Oh Mary, oh Mary, you're the one I want

Oh Mary, oh Mary, you're the one I want

Cause Mary, you are my home

Cause Mary, oh Mary, you're the one I want

Oh Mary, you are my home

RUNNING WILD

Look how all is closing down

In every street in this town

It's almost time, I'm wearing white

We're gonna go, I've got the wibe

Look how all is closing down

In each and every little spot

We're gonna go from this moment till the dawn

I've got the music

I'm running wild, tonight

Look how all is closing down

In every street in this town

I'm gonna go and take what's mine

I've got the music, I'm still in white

Tonight I can let it go, tonight I can let it go

Look how all is closing down

In every street in this town

We've had it all, we've had our fun

We have the music, still running wild

Look how all is closing down

We won't stop just 'cause it's time

I'm gonna take what's rightfully mine

I kissed them all, I'm running wild

Tonight I can let it go, tonight I can let it go

We've had our fun

We're wearing white

We still got music

We're running wild

Tonight I can let it go, tonight I can let it go

FIFTY SHADES

Let it go, you need to know what I mean

Let it go, you need to blow off some steam

We're gonna go, we're gonna blow your mind

Let it go, you need to find the time

Let it go, you need to cross the line

We're gonna go, I'm gonna blow your mind

Barricade your door to day, ,cause I'm gonna give you the right kind of pain

I know we'll find the way, we're gonna live just like in Fifty shades

Let it go, you need to find the time

Let it go, you need to cross the line

We're gonna go, I'm gonna blow your mind

Let it go, you need to know what I mean

Let it go, you need to know how I can be mean

We're gonna go, I'm gonna blow your mind

Barricade your door to day, ,cause I'm gonna give you the right kind of pain

I know we'll find the way, we're gonna live just like in Fifty shades

Barricade your door to day, ,cause I'm gonna give you the right kind of pain

I know we'll find the way, we're gonna live just like in Fifty shades

My night

I saw her cross the crowded room

She was surrounded but still I made my move, I made my move

I bought her a drink and I asked her name

She didn't say but I stayed all the same, all the same

I'm gonna take her round the world, I'm gonna hide her from the face of the Earth

I'm gonna whisper all the night, I'm gonna whisper with all my might

It's my night, all this is my night

And I want you close and I want you to treat me tonight

Cheap wine and candles, sweet love of madness, it's all that's waiting for you

Tonight

I'm gonna reap the seeds you tried to sow, but didn't care to watch them grow, watch them grow

I'm gonna peel her of her skin to find the person that lies within, lies within

I'm gonna take her round the world, I'm gonna hide her from the face of the Earth

I'm gonna whisper all the night, I'm gonna whisper with all my might

It's my night, all this is my night

And I want you close and I want you to treat me tonight

Cheap wine and candles, sweet love of madness, it's all that's waiting for you

Tonight

I'm gonna find a finer line, to keep her away, away from my heart...

It's my night, all this is my night

And I want you close and I want you to treat me tonight

Cheap wine and candles, sweet love of madness, it's all that's waiting for you

Tonight

UP TOP

I cannot take all the things and send them away with just one swing, just one swing

I cannot slay all the beasts that roam your streets that roam your fields, roam your fields

But when it comes to dreaming I'm California high

But when it comes to dreaming I hear you screaming

Up top I'm still alive

Up top feel the breeze

Up top I'm still alive

Up top, up top

I cannot take all the things and send them flying with swish and flick, swish and flick

I cannot turn all the beasts into some sheep as you might wish, as you might wish

But when it comes to dreaming I'm California high

But when it comes to dreaming I hear you screaming

Up top I'm still alive

Up top feel the breeze

Up top walking the line

Up top, I'm still here

Up top I'm still alive

Up top feel the breeze

Up top walking the line

Up top, up top

I'm still alive...

Walking on my time, I got nothing to hide, nothing to prove and nothing to lose

I'm writing my story.

I'm getting into light, I'm getting into fights, maybe I should begin to worry, oooo

Here comes the sun again watch it shine

Here comes the sun again watch it,

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my head

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my bed

Walking with whole my crew, still got nothing to do, but lots to prove and whole lots to lose

I might start to worry

You might point out I know that I'm always alone but I do it for glory, my different story

Here comes the sun again watch it shine

Here comes the sun again watch it,

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my head

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my bed

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my head

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my bed

SOLO

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my head

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my bed

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my head

Here comes the sun yeah she's in my bed

TIRED OF LOSERS

She walks in quiet beauty, like Sunday morning at dawn

She says whatever she pleases, in the morning she is gone

I'm tired of losers, she said to me again, oh yes, I am

I'm tired of losers, she said to me again, oh yes, I am

But I said: you'll never be alone, you'll never be alone, with me by your side

But I said: you'll never be alone, you'll never be alone, with me by your side

She walks in morning glory, like Sunday morning at dawn

Last night she was all I could dream of

In the morning just a note: Baby I'm gone!

I'm tired of losers, she said to me again, oh yes, I am

I'm tired of losers, she said to me again, oh yes, I am

You'll never be alone, you'll never be alone, with me by your side

You'll never be alone, you'll never be alone, with me by your side

SHE MUST KNOW

I waited for you all those nights and what did I get?

I waited for you all those nights and what did I get?

All this misery was raining down on me 'cause I didn't care

All this misery was raining down on me I swear

She must know we are falling apart

She must know she's been breaking my heart

I played with you all those stupid games and what did I get?

I played with you all those stupid games and what did I get?

All your friends were laughing down at me and I didn't care

All your friends were looking down on me I swear

She must know we are falling apart

She must know she's been breaking my heart

She must know I was ready for love

She must know we are breaking apart

She must know we are falling apart

She must know she's been breaking my heart

She must know I was ready for love

She must know we are breaking apart

BETTER THAN THE REST

Where your life is going and how to steer your fate
You're asking all those people coming out of drain
Just remember those lovers, both hurt and misplaced
They've been here only to give ya a better fighting chance
You keep up to your word and you always pay your dues
There is no one right behind you who could say that you're not true
You sometimes hurt your fingers, bump your head, tumble and fall
But you rise up to your feet right when all the quitters walk

'cause you are not so weak that everybody say
And you've got all you need right here in your hands
You've got little thing called faith that drives you every day
'cause you are better than the rest

Why is crying all around us, little bits of broken dreams
We pick up all those pieces and live them in our sleep
It's nowhere near to OK to keep us strong and keep our faith
You sometimes stare for hours then you get out and save the day

'cause you are not so weak that everybody say
And you've got all you need right here in your hands
You've got little thing called faith that drives you every day
'cause you are better than the rest

Late and night I can see the things you dream
Late and night everything is what it seems

Late and night just like me you toss and scream

We are not, we are not alone in this misery

'cause you are not so weak that everybody say

And you've got all you need right here in your hands

'cause you are better than the rest
